What the leaders said:

Prayer and support for each other

Reading the Bible and understanding it better.
Learning more about Christian faith.
Supporting each other in faithful Christian living.

Fellowship, enjoying each other's company

Being part of a small group, within a larger church congregation, is one way of:

- All being involved
- Becoming disciples
- Creating community
- Developing missional lives
- Encountering God more deeply

Missional Disciples

“Like enjoying a good meal, reading, interpreting and understanding Scripture involves desiring, ruminating, savouring and digesting.”

And while it can be done alone, it’s best done in company, like a really good meal or feast!”

But ...

We need more Small Groups!

- Day of the week?
- Time of day?
- Different ways of approaching the Bible to learn more about living as a Christian?

And so ...

- We need new Small Group leaders.
- Is this something God is calling you to?
- Has God given you the skills and gifts to offer to serve in this way?

Thinking about Small Groups ...
